Dear Miss Parlow,

Her Majesty the Queen
just received the crocus that you so kindly ordered for Her and sends you Her best thanks, She is enchanted with them and will certainly have them planted in

Her garden of memories.

Would you kindly tell me where I would be able to find also some of them, for I love roses and would be so pleased to plant some in Sicily in spring time, because now the earth is frozen.

I hope we will see
you again very soon.

With kind regards

Yours Prospice
